

Medical claim reimbursement form

Use this form to file medical claims. There's a separate pharmacy claims reimbursement form for prescription drug claims. You only need to fill out this form if your healthcare provider isn't filing the claim for you. Sign and date each form to be eligible for reimbursement. Note that completing and submitting this form does not guarantee reimbursement.

Step 1: Fill out form completely, providing your member and medical claim information. Claims are paid directly to you if services are rendered by non-participating providers and the services are covered.

Step 2: Attach your receipt of payment with description of services provided.
