

Geisinger Institutional Review Board (IRB) Fee Schedule

Effective January 1, 2018, a one-time fee will be charged for IRB review of all externally sponsored research studies involving human subjects supported by industry or other for-profit companies, including investigator-initiated research funded by industry. This fee covers initial review and all continuing reviews, amendments and unanticipated problems submitted to the IRB for the life of the study.

Expedited and Full Board Initial Submission Review Fee $4000 and Indirects

Exempt Review Fee..... $500 and Indirects

External IRB Review Fee..... $1000 and Indirects

Investigators and departments are responsible for payment of the IRB fees if the cost is not ultimately reimbursed by the sponsor. Fees for IRB review will be evaluated each year by HRPP and are subject to change.
